

The word problem for one relator inverse monoids: techniques and obstacles

John Meakin

Abstract

This talk will discuss various techniques that have been used to study the word problem for one-relator inverse monoids of the form $M = \text{Inv}\langle X : w = 1 \rangle$, where w is a cyclically reduced word. The talk will focus mainly on obstacles that arise and on possible directions for additional work on this problem.